Dear Lucia,

I need not write you any of the news for Caroline & Anne will tell you of every thing. Tell Aunt Mary that the reason why I have done nothing during the past week about writing is that 3 days I was sick with the sick head ache & Anne was overcome with the heat. I am sorry little Henry is so uproarious — keep him off of tha if you can. I think I could manage him. I hope you & Emma will both study this summer Emma in particular will I hope say a french lesson to Anne every day. Tell her to write exercise — when she get through the 1st Prime I will send her the 2d. I expected to have been at home before now — but you see I cant leave Maria. Write often and let me know how you get along. I am going to keep a journal for your edification. I send Henry 4 pair of drawers which Charity had for him — but as she was expecting Harry home did not send them.

The things I want sent in are 1st My green muslin gown when convenient 2d my white gown not done up 3d that lace cap which I no more sunday 4th that large woolen shawl 5th Caroline Seabury's letter which Anne will get

Dear Deborah.

I have an order to dress this here. Etc' I think it unnecessarily hot to-day — am resting — I thought I would not come in to night but shall feel very anxious to learn how Mamie is to morrow — do you not come out with Lizzy or write in the morning — I express Warren — & what acute arrangement for pain I find the neuralgia rather oppressive — the children have wish to see you

I send Lizzy under Louisa's care — & am very truly Yours — Caroline

½ o clock

I met G. Johnson who says Garrison goes to-morrow & wishes to see Ch — very much before he leaves & dine with to-morrow, whether to cook or not — I fear he could stay
